THURSDAY GAME TO BE CLOSE CONTEST

SOUTH OMAHA HIGH SCHOOL TO CLOSE LOCAL FOOTBALL SEASON

The curtain will be rung down on the 1922 football season next Thursday when the teams representing the North Platte High School conclude the double header, the opening game of which will be between the Maxwell High School and the North Platte Reserves (no first team substitutes will participate in this game) and the concluding game of which will be between South High of Omaha and North Platte.

In a statement issued yesterday Keith Neville reviewed the game at Sidney as follows:

At Sidney last week, North Platte ran up sixty-four points against Sidney using eighteen players in all during the game. Palmer, the local right tackle, did not enter the game due to injuries received in the Fremont contest a week ago. "Squeak" Morris, playing the first game of his career piloted the team at quarterback throughout the third period in a creditable manner. The North Platte backs all played excellent ball, Stroup making two touchdowns, Yearley three and Wilson two. The principle ground gadner was Shaner who scored three touchdowns and made possible most of the others, carrying the ball inside the five yard line four times in addition to the scores made directly from forward passes. Yates, while he did not carry the ball across, developed the best interference shown by North Platte this season and it was the combination of Yates running interference and Shaner carrying the ball, that accounted for many of

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS OPEN- ING NIGHT OF STUDIO AND FLORAL SHOP

Saturday evening was the opening night of the Brown Studio and of the Floyd Daniel Floral shop. The guests were shown through the new studio and the new shop where cut flowers were on display and as the guests passed out they were presented with a rose. Music was furnished by the Shannon Four orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel were in the receiving line. Mr. Brown comes to the city from Omaha where he operated a studio. Mr. Daniel is a local young man and has been interested in floral work for the past eight years.

HERSHEY PRECINCT ORGANIZES TO BUILD NORTH RIVER BRIDGE

D. E. Martin of Hershey appeared before the county commissioners yesterday and presented a petition asking that body to organize the Hershey bridge district according to certain named lines. The petition contained 218 signatures which was far above the number required by law. The commissioners by resolution passed the motion organizing the district. Those who are leading in the matter will now secure a petition asking the commissioners to call an election to vote bonds for the construction of a bridge over the North Platte river north of Hershey. It is proposed to make this a state aid bridge with the state paying half of the cost. The total expense of the bridge is estimated at $40,000.

North Platte's longest gains.

Concerning the Thanksgiving game the following announcement is of interest.

Both South High and North Platte have suffered defeats during the season and both teams have improved steadily, overcoming to a considerable extent, the handicap of young and inexperienced players and both are playing a brand of football at this time that would make trouble for the best teams in the state.

South Omaha has a fast team that weighs 1652 pounds or an average of 150 pounds. They will be outweighed by the local eleven, especially in the backfield, but the South backs are all fast men and Graham at quarter back, since Purdy of Beatrice has been declared ineligible, is probably Nebraska's strongest quarter.

The game between Maxwell and the Reserves will be called at 1.15. The South High-North Platte game at 3 p. m. Inquiries from out of town indicate that many people will attend the game from as far west as Sidney and as far east as Lexington.

PEOPLE'S COLLEGE IN LINCOLN COUNTY

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION DE-PARTMENT TO BRING TEACHERS HERE

George H. Kellogg, county agent of Lincoln county is sending out some letters this week to farming communities over the county proposing organization of a farm business school. The extension department of the University of Nebraska is proposing to send one of its trained specialists in farm business to Lincoln county and have him hold a one day school in as many communities as are willing to take hold of it. The conditions are that the local people must enroll from twenty to fifty people in the school and must furnish a place in which the lectures will be given. The subjects to be considered in the school are "The Farmer's Labor" (factors that mean a better wage), "The Farmer's Capital" (Can it be made to earn five percent?), "Getting the Facts" and "Exercises in Keeping Farm Accounts". The business of farming is neglected by most farmers in looking after the practice of farming and it is the intention of the Extension Service to give some training along these lines. Other counties have taken this opportunity and the school has been most successful. It is expected that Lincoln county will not be backward in answering the call for enrollments and doing all possible to make the schools when organized, a success.

Chas. Rincker, Harry Pizer and Clarence McCabe leave by auto tomorrow for Lincoln where they will attend the Nebraska-Notre Dame football game.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Baldwin of Callaway are expected tomorrow to spend Thanksgiving in the city with relatives.

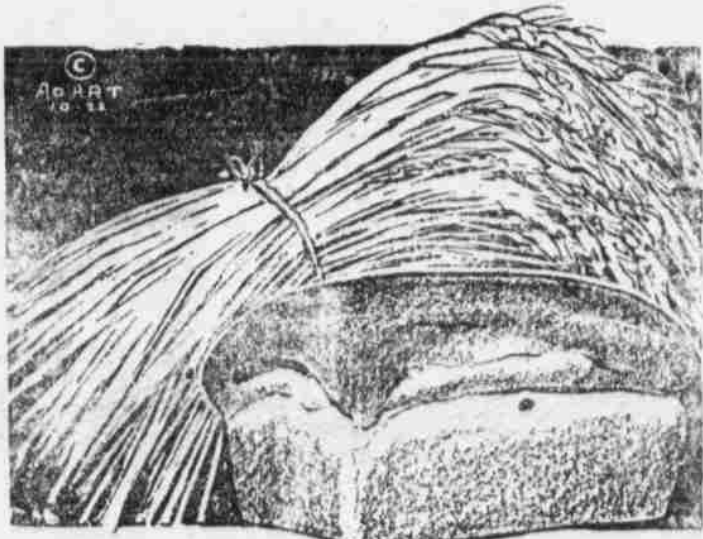

D. A. Chorpennig of Oakland, California came last evening to visit with relatives. He was a former resident here.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Becker of Cheyenne came last evening to spend several days in the city at the Arthur Know home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smithers will leave tomorrow for Kearney where they will spend Thanksgiving with friends.

Mrs. W. A. Buchfinch and children leave tomorrow for Grand Island where they will spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Wheat Is Nature's Best Food

Nature has provided for man a great multitude of nourishing foods. The most perfect of these is wheat—the staff of life. Bread made from good wheat is perfect food. But the wheat must be properly ground or it will lose some of its qualities for health making.
